

Newport Society Has Novel Dance in Vacant Villa

Junior Naval Officers and Wives Entertain Friends—
Arrivals at Resort.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 26.—Many sojourners joined the villa colony this week and are at their places for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Curtis James arrived today at Beacon Hill House for the summer, coming from New York on board their steam yacht the Alpha.

Others joining the colony permanently are Mr. and Mrs. E. Heyward Ferry, who are at Edgemoor; Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitney Carpenter, Telephone Cottage on the Cliff; Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Perwind, The Elms, in Bellevue avenue; Mrs. Henry Clewa, who has joined Mr. Clewa at The Rocks, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Philip Benard, who came today. Also Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Curtis, who are with her mother, Mrs. William Grosvenor; Mrs. William G. Weld, who is at the La Forge cottage, from Boston, and Miss Grace Bigelow, who is stopping with her niece, Mrs. J. Francis A. Clark.

Yachts in Trial Races.

Yachting has attracted many parties to the end of the ocean drive at Davis Point, where each day during the trial races of the Yacht and Resolute there have been a large gathering, coming in their automobiles. The starting line, which is only a short way off shore near the Breton's Reef lightship, is directly opposite this point, making a fine view for the spectators. Among those viewing the races were Mr. and Mrs. T. Sufferer Taylor, Mrs. J. Francis A. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Marden J. Perry, Captain and Mrs. Rufus A. Johnston, the Misses Donohue and Natalia Willard and Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitney Carpenter. Some brought small telephones with them and erected the tripods on the shore. Others have witnessed the races on board various craft. The steam yacht Corsair, with Commodore J. P. Morgan and guests; the schooner yacht Constellation, with Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club and his wife and friends; the schooner yacht Kirtin, Mr. Max Agassiz and a party, and the schooner yacht Water Witch, Mr. J. H. Winslow, have been among those taking the racing yachts about the course.

Miss Julia G. McAllister is stopping with Mrs. George Lewis Gillespie at the Forge Annex for several days. Mr. Ralph N. Ellis arrived Friday to witness the close of the racing on Saturday, and Mr. Alexander S. Cochran returned from New York for the same purpose. Miss Maude Wetmore, who has been at Chateau-sur-Mer with Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Wetmore, has returned to New York; Mrs. E. H. G. Slater, who has been inspecting her villa, Hopewell, started today for Santa Barbara, Calif., for the summer, where she has taken a bungalow. Mr. William H. Vanderbilt, who has been at Harbourview for a few days, has returned to New York. Mrs. Charles S. Whitman returned to New York today after inspecting her cottage at Price's Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. C. Taylor are occupying their Annadale road place and making frequent drives over the country roads to their farm in Portmouth, known as Glen Farm. Mr. Taylor has been making a personal effort to have the condition of the roads improved about the island.

Leases the Wilson Villa.

Mr. George B. Hedges of New York has leased the Wilson Villa, in Narragansett avenue, for the summer. The place, which belongs to Mrs. Richard Thornton Wilson, was occupied last year by Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis A. Clark. Mrs. Wilson is at her farm in Middletown for a part of the summer. Hill Top Inn opened for the summer today. Mr. G. Louis Holasevich has taken an apartment for the season. On Wednesday morning went to the training station to witness the exhibition drill by the apprentice seamen. Rear Admiral William S. Sims was the reviewing officer and the drill was in command of Commander Howard Flanagan.

Capt. and Mrs. Martin E. French will give a large tea party next week at their cottage on the torpedero station. Next Friday will bring the opening of the Codding Point Club, of which Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster is chairman. The club is used to furnish rest, reading and refreshments for the boys in the navy, and Mrs. Webster has arranged several entertainments for the place this summer, for which her friends have volunteered their services. Mrs. T. Shaw Safe, who has been at Ocean Lawn, her villa on the Cliff, during the spring months, will start tomorrow for England with her son, Mr. Kenneth Shaw, where they will pass the summer with Mrs. Safe's sister, Lady Herbert. Mr. John Clinton Gray has arrived at the Muenchinger King Redwood cottage for the summer. Dr. and Mrs. Richard V. Mattison again are at Bushy Park after an extended automobile tour through Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Paul will close their cottage in Mill street soon and start for England, where they will remain until September, returning for the late season.

Narragansett Pier to Have a Long Season of Polo

NARRAGANSETT PIER, June 26.—There is general satisfaction over the announcement that Narragansett is to have an unusually interesting season of polo to continue from July 25 until late into August, a fact that will prove a rejuvenating force in Pier social life and, as in days of yore, a magnet for the colonies at Watch Hill, New London and Newport.

The season opens next Saturday, when there will be a special dinner early in the evening, followed by dancing. Among the cottagers arriving from New York the past week were the Rev. William D. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. David S. Baker, Jr., Miss Edith King and Mrs. Alfred E. Noyes. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewster Kane, who are now in France, with their daughter, Miss Kane, will arrive at their villa, Ridge Lawn, in Central street, later in the season. Mrs. Thomas Doherty of Philadelphia, who was Miss Fanny Simonsen, and who has been staying at the Revere

Some of the First to Brave the Chilly but Invigorating Surf at Southampton

Mrs. ELIHU ROOT, JR. and HER SON
ELIHU ROOT, JR.

MISS CLARA LEE and MISS HELEN KRECH OF NEW YORK.

Hotel, will occupy her villa, Two Acres, in Ocean road, for the season. Mrs. A. Heaton Robinson of New Haven will spend the season at the Pier, having rented one of the Seaford cottages. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norris of Philadelphia have rented Shinglenook, in Central street.

Mr. H. W. Miller and family of New York, newcomers at the Pier, will be at Laika-Rook cottage. Mr. and Mrs. William L. Mauran of Providence are at Sugar Hill, White Mountains, for a short stay before occupying their country place, the Manor House, at Wakefield, near the Pier.

Mrs. Merwin White of Providence has arrived at her villa, Melrose, at Earl's court. She is to have charge of the music at St. Peter's-by-the-Sea, Sunday mornings, as last season. Since last season, however, Mrs. White has lost both her husband and sister, Mrs. Stanley Henshaw. Mrs. White is a sister of Mr. Samuel M. Nicholson and aunt of Mrs. Nelson Doubleday of Oyster Bay, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parson Cross of Providence, with their family, have arrived at their country place at Wakefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Conroy and family of Cincinnati, Ohio, are at their villa, Riverview. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell of Washington, Pa., with their children, have arrived at Wildfield Lodge.

Mrs. Saunders P. Jones of Louisville, Ky., is at Holiday House on the cliffs. Many persons from Philadelphia, at the Massasoit Hotel for the Fourth. Mrs. Howard Richmond will be at the Imperial to join her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Anson Richmond of Providence, who have a cottage near the hotel, and also her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Richmond of Providence, who are at Oak Hill, Wakefield.

Mrs. John Snowden and her grandson of New York are at the Green Inn. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paige and party of Brookline, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Landaur and children of Dallas, Texas, are at the same hotel.

Miss Caroline Codrington, Mrs. H. A. Cushing of New York and Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson of Washington, D. C., have arrived at the Revere Hotel.

THE LOUIS XIV ANTIQUE CO.
C. V. MILLER
REMOVAL SALE
We are offering our magnificent stock of Curiosities, Objets d'Art, Laces,
Paintings, Porcelains, Draperies,
Choice Antique Jewels, Old
Chintzes, Chinese Decorations, etc.
At 25% to 50% Off
Our Regular Prices
Owing to removal to our new store,
9 EAST 55th ST.
Tel. Plaza 5185.

DUDENSING
Galleries Established 1881
Appropriate Wedding Gifts
PAINTINGS
by
George Inness
A. H. Wyant
R. A. Blakelock
J. Francis Murphy and other American Artists
45 West 44th St. 2d, 3rd and 4th
Aves., New York

Plaza Art Rooms
Edward P. O'Reilly President
CONSIGNMENTS invited OP
WORKS OF ART
Old and Modern Paintings and Prints, Antiques and Paintings, Reproductions, other Art Objects and Artistic Furniture and Furnishings for Private Sale or by Auction.
Expert Appraisals, unusual inquiries to Dealers and Collectors.
5-7 EAST 59th ST. At Fifth Avenue
* During this summer, special appraisals secured at our private sales of Works of Art.

Society Enjoys Outdoor Sports at Southampton

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., June 26.—Life at Southampton is swinging along at a merry pace, although there is no special form of entertainment being enjoyed outside of golf, tennis and motoring. The season of entertaining does not open formally before the Independence Day holiday sojourners have arrived. Among those who will give dinner parties at next Saturday are Major and Mrs. Theron R. Strong and Mrs. Frederic P. Humphreys. Mrs. Strong's dinner will be given at the Meadow Club. Miss Mary Millicent Rogers will entertain eight friends at her parents' villa for the holiday. Several of her friends will come from Washington.

Another addition to the summer cottagers is Mrs. William Babcock of San Francisco, Cal., a sister of Mr. Henry May, who will occupy the Gilman cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Hillman with their daughters again will spend the summer at Southampton after an absence of several years. They have taken the Bunting cottage.

Mrs. E. M. Horne of Pittsburgh and New York arrived yesterday at the Thacher residence on the Dunes, where later her daughter, Mrs. Charles G. West, Jr., of New York, will join her with her young children. Miss Bess Horne is in France and Mr. Franklin J. Horne is making a trip around the world.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Joseph B. Dillworth her attractive residence will be given over for the afternoon of Wednesday, July 14, for a bridge tournament for the benefit of the tubercular clinic of the social service of Harlem Hospital.

Mrs. W. De Lancey Kountze is assisting Mrs. Dillworth in making the event a success.

Capt. and Mrs. William A. Burton, who were in Washington during the winter, have arrived here for the season. Capt. and Mrs. Frank Bryce of England are at Red Top Farm with Mrs. William Forbes Morgan. Mrs. Phillips B. Thompson, who owns Red Top Farm, has come with her two daughters to Murray Bay for the summer.

Mrs. Frederic H. Betts is passing the summer at the Meadow Club as also are Mrs. Joel B. Ehrhardt, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Turley, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dammann and their daughter, Miss Lydia E. Dammann.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thues Munds are at the Irving Hotel, where they have been entertaining Mrs. Charlotte Fairchild of New York.

Mr. Ferdinand F. Jolke of New York is at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club. Messrs. Ernest A. Thomson and Charles F. Hackstaff are at the Southampton Motor Club. Mr. W. Scott Cameron has arrived at his cottage on the Lunex, as also have Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Copley Thaw and their daughter, Miss Margaret Thaw.

Through the generosity of Mr. Samuel L. Parrish a "Memorial Hall," dedicated to the seven Southampton young men who lost their lives in the war, has been given to Southampton. The room is sixty feet long with great French windows on two sides. When completed it will be a rest room for the use of patients convalescent from the Southampton Hospital. Mr. Parrish has kindly permitted the National Arts Association to use the hall for the present month and part of July to hang an exhibition of Capt. George Harding's sketches and pictures taken when he was abroad as the official artist connected with the A. E. F.

Mrs. Finley P. Dunne and her children are at the Rushmore cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick F. Murphy and their daughter, Miss Esther Murphy, will again pass the summer at the Little Orchard cottage, adjoining Mr. James L. Breesee's The Orchard. Their son, Mr. Frederic T. Murphy, who on Tuesday married Miss Noel Haskins of New York, has started for Europe with his bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien and their daughter, Miss Estelle O'Brien, have gone to California in a private car to attend the Democratic Convention. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. O'Brien is visiting his sister, Mrs. Lytle Fox.

Mrs. John Asprey, with her two young children, and her mother, Mrs. Daniel Bacon, is spending a short time in Southampton before she and Mr. Asprey start for a trip through China.

Dr. P. Fawcett Chambers and Dr. Joseph S. Wheelwright are at their cottages. Dr. Albert H. Ely will pass the summer in China and Japan. Miss Celestine Eustis has arrived at the Brush cottage on Halsey's Neck lane. Mrs. Howard C. Dickinson, with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Howard C. Dickinson, and grandson are at their cottage, Mayfields. Mr. and Mrs. Lucien H. Tyng are at their home on Halsey's Neck lane. Mr. and Mrs. John Wright of Aiken, S. C., with their two daughters are at the Golden Rod cottage.

Both Stores CLOSED All Day Saturday, July 3rd and Monday, July 5th

Thus Giving Our Employees a Three-Day
Holiday to Celebrate the 4th of July.

Summer Closing Hours
Starting Saturday, July 10th, both of our stores will close at one o'clock on Saturday afternoon until further notice.
For the convenience of our customers who are unable to come during the day the Harlem store will remain open each Monday evening until 10 o'clock. All departments, as well as the office, will be running as usual on these Monday evenings just the same as during regular daytime hours.

FOR EVERY ROOM
OF EVERY HOME
BEDS BEDDING
BOOKCASES
BUFFETS
CARPETS
CHAIRS
CHIFFONNIERS
CHINA CLOSETS
CLOCKS
COUCHES
CRIBS
CROCKERY
CURTAINS
DESKS
DRESSERS
GO-CARTS
HIGH CHAIRS
ICE BOXES
KITCHENWARE
LAMP
LINOLEUM
MATTING
MORRIS CHAIRS
OILCLOTH
PARLOR SUITES
PIANOS
PLAYER PIANOS
AND MUSIC ROLLS
PICTURES RANGES
ROCKERS
RUGS
SERVERS
SIDEBOARDS
STOVES TABLES
WARDROBES
TALKING MACHINES
AND RECORDS
ETC., ETC.

For 113 years "The Oldest Furniture House in America" has been bringing new beauty and comfort into New York homes.

To-day our two big stores are just chock-full of home things that you have been longing for. And our Liberal Credit Plan will bring you at once whatever you select.

No red tape—no delay! Merely make your selections and let small weekly or monthly payments quickly clear up the matter.

COWPERTHWAIT & SONS
Open a Charge Account with the "Oldest Furniture House in America"

3rd Avenue
and 121st St. Two Stores
193-205 Park Row
at Chatham Square

Lenox Sojourners Attend Dinners and Receptions

Miss Emily W. Biddle Entertains
Garden Club Council
—Berkshire Notes.

LENOX, June 26.—Receptions, dinners, luncheon and bridge parties at the villa and many arrivals at the hotels have made this week in June seem like mid-autumn in its social activities. Miss Emily W. Biddle of Philadelphia entertained the council of the Lenox Garden Club at Breezy Corners Tuesday, while dinners were given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Russell at the Aspinwall Hotel, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Dana, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Winans Whistler and Mrs. Joseph S. Whistler.

Only those who personally work in the garden with pruning knife and hoe are eligible to membership in the council. Miss Biddle's guests included Mrs. Willard Clarke, Mrs. John E. Parsons, Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis, Mrs. Thomas Sturgis, Mrs. Richard C. Dixey, one of the garden club founders; Miss Georgiana W. Barker, who was at the tea table, and Miss Mary Aspinwall Tappan. Miss Biddle's house was decorated with garden flowers which she had raised herself.

Mrs. Frank J. Metcalfe and daughter, Mrs. Public Chan, wife of the "collier" who now is in Spain, are spending the summer with Mrs. Lydia Field Emmet, portrait artist, in Stockbridge, and on Tuesday Miss Emmet had a garden party in honor of Mrs. Metcalfe's seventieth birthday. There was a birthday cake with seventy candles and a profusion of flowers arranged by Miss Emmet, assisted by Miss Marie O. Kobbie and Miss Helen J. Kobbie, also portrait artist. Among others who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kobbie, Mrs. Austin Huntington and Mrs. George F. Munn, who were stopping with Misses Kobbie and Mr. Louis B. Metcalfe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond and family are to pass the month of July with her mother, Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, at Elm Court. Mrs. George H. Bond has been spending June with her daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Beatrice Longman, sculptor, who is to be married to Mr. Nathaniel Horton Batchelder of Boston on the lawn at Chesterwood, the Stockbridge place of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French, on Monday afternoon, began her career as a pupil of Mr. French's brother, the late William M. R. French, director of the Chicago Art Institute, in 1895. She was there for two years and then became an assistant to Mr. Daniel C. French at his New York studio.

Managers of the Lenox Library have placed in the rotunda a white Italian marble tablet designed by Julius E. F. Gayley as a memorial to Frederick A. Schermerhorn of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton J. Van Rensselaer of Newport are at the Red Lion Inn at Stockbridge. They are on the golf course every afternoon, as are Capt. and Mrs. Harry G. Martin of New York, who are at the Adams Inn.

Mrs. James R. Jessup of New York is at the Curtis Hotel in Lenox for her thirty-fifth season. Mr. Chandler Robbins is there until early July, when he will go to Bar Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. S. Parkman Shaw, who have been at the Curtis all the month, will go to North East Harbor, Me., for July and August and will return to Lenox early in September.

Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of New York, Mr. Charles W. MacCord of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Graham K. Mellen of New Haven, Conn., are at Heaton Hall in Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Kernochan of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., will arrive next week at Holmesdale in Pittsfield for a month with her mother, Mrs. William Pollock.

At the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield for the season are Mrs. Hiram R. Dater of the Apthorp apartments, New York; Mrs. Henry Miller of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Lenox Maitland of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson has lent her collection of porcelain to the Brooklyn Museum of Fine Arts. Mrs. Patterson will pass the summer in Quebec and will be with Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold during September.

BEVERLY.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 26.—With the approach of July the North Shore summer season begins to swing into full stride. The coming week promises to be an especially busy one along the North Shore. Among those to entertain will be Mrs. William H. Moore of New York city at Rockyknave, her summer home at Price's Crossing. On Thursday the Eastern Yacht Club at Marblehead will formally open its season with a band concert, dinner and dance at the clubhouse. The annual club cruise will start on Sunday and the yachts will rendezvous at Mattapoisett. One of the largest events will be the festival to be given at the Haven estate at Beverly Farms on July 1 for the benefit of the Charlestown Naval Y. M. C. A. Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Hamilton is to be the chairman of the booths committee. The event coming on the night before the Fourth will allow several novel entertainment features to be provided. A cabaret with jazz music will be one of the attractions. For the daylight programme a horse show featuring the jumping classes will offer the entertainment to colonists expected from all of the colonies.

The OceanSide Hotel at Magnolia has opened for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erdmann of New York are at their Coolidge Point place. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler of San Antonio, Tex., are at their cottage at Bass Rocks. Mrs. John C. Phillips of Washington is at her place, the Moraine Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their cottage at Smith's Point, at Manches Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their place at Pigeon Cove. Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club has returned from a cruise to Newport on board his schooner yacht the Constellation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Hoyt of New York are at their cottage at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Cutting, Jr., of New York city also are at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meredith Whitehouse of New York have opened their cottage at Crowhurst at Manchester.

Mrs. Thomas H. Howard of Hyde Park, N. Y., has taken a cottage at Price's Crossing. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Foster of New York are at their cottage at Coolidge Point, Magnolia. Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Appleton of New York have opened their cottage on the Appleton Farm at Ipswich.

August and will return to Lenox early in September.

Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of New York, Mr. Charles W. MacCord of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Graham K. Mellen of New Haven, Conn., are at Heaton Hall in Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Kernochan of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., will arrive next week at Holmesdale in Pittsfield for a month with her mother, Mrs. William Pollock.

At the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield for the season are Mrs. Hiram R. Dater of the Apthorp apartments, New York; Mrs. Henry Miller of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Lenox Maitland of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson has lent her collection of porcelain to the Brooklyn Museum of Fine Arts. Mrs. Patterson will pass the summer in Quebec and will be with Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold during September.

BEVERLY.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 26.—With the approach of July the North Shore summer season begins to swing into full stride. The coming week promises to be an especially busy one along the North Shore. Among those to entertain will be Mrs. William H. Moore of New York city at Rockyknave, her summer home at Price's Crossing. On Thursday the Eastern Yacht Club at Marblehead will formally open its season with a band concert, dinner and dance at the clubhouse. The annual club cruise will start on Sunday and the yachts will rendezvous at Mattapoisett. One of the largest events will be the festival to be given at the Haven estate at Beverly Farms on July 1 for the benefit of the Charlestown Naval Y. M. C. A. Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Hamilton is to be the chairman of the booths committee. The event coming on the night before the Fourth will allow several novel entertainment features to be provided. A cabaret with jazz music will be one of the attractions. For the daylight programme a horse show featuring the jumping classes will offer the entertainment to colonists expected from all of the colonies.

The OceanSide Hotel at Magnolia has opened for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erdmann of New York are at their Coolidge Point place. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler of San Antonio, Tex., are at their cottage at Bass Rocks. Mrs. John C. Phillips of Washington is at her place, the Moraine Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their cottage at Smith's Point, at Manches Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their place at Pigeon Cove. Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club has returned from a cruise to Newport on board his schooner yacht the Constellation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Hoyt of New York are at their cottage at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Cutting, Jr., of New York city also are at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meredith Whitehouse of New York have opened their cottage at Crowhurst at Manchester.

Mrs. Thomas H. Howard of Hyde Park, N. Y., has taken a cottage at Price's Crossing. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Foster of New York are at their cottage at Coolidge Point, Magnolia. Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Appleton of New York have opened their cottage on the Appleton Farm at Ipswich.

August and will return to Lenox early in September.

Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of New York, Mr. Charles W. MacCord of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Graham K. Mellen of New Haven, Conn., are at Heaton Hall in Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Kernochan of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., will arrive next week at Holmesdale in Pittsfield for a month with her mother, Mrs. William Pollock.

At the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield for the season are Mrs. Hiram R. Dater of the Apthorp apartments, New York; Mrs. Henry Miller of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Lenox Maitland of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson has lent her collection of porcelain to the Brooklyn Museum of Fine Arts. Mrs. Patterson will pass the summer in Quebec and will be with Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold during September.

BEVERLY.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 26.—With the approach of July the North Shore summer season begins to swing into full stride. The coming week promises to be an especially busy one along the North Shore. Among those to entertain will be Mrs. William H. Moore of New York city at Rockyknave, her summer home at Price's Crossing. On Thursday the Eastern Yacht Club at Marblehead will formally open its season with a band concert, dinner and dance at the clubhouse. The annual club cruise will start on Sunday and the yachts will rendezvous at Mattapoisett. One of the largest events will be the festival to be given at the Haven estate at Beverly Farms on July 1 for the benefit of the Charlestown Naval Y. M. C. A. Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Hamilton is to be the chairman of the booths committee. The event coming on the night before the Fourth will allow several novel entertainment features to be provided. A cabaret with jazz music will be one of the attractions. For the daylight programme a horse show featuring the jumping classes will offer the entertainment to colonists expected from all of the colonies.

The OceanSide Hotel at Magnolia has opened for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erdmann of New York are at their Coolidge Point place. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler of San Antonio, Tex., are at their cottage at Bass Rocks. Mrs. John C. Phillips of Washington is at her place, the Moraine Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their cottage at Smith's Point, at Manches Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their place at Pigeon Cove. Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club has returned from a cruise to Newport on board his schooner yacht the Constellation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Hoyt of New York are at their cottage at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Cutting, Jr., of New York city also are at the Cove. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Meredith Whitehouse of New York have opened their cottage at Crowhurst at Manchester.

Mrs. Thomas H. Howard of Hyde Park, N. Y., has taken a cottage at Price's Crossing. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Foster of New York are at their cottage at Coolidge Point, Magnolia. Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Appleton of New York have opened their cottage on the Appleton Farm at Ipswich.

August and will return to Lenox early in September.

Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of New York, Mr. Charles W. MacCord of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Graham K. Mellen of New Haven, Conn., are at Heaton Hall in Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Kernochan of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., will arrive next week at Holmesdale in Pittsfield for a month with her mother, Mrs. William Pollock.

At the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield for the season are Mrs. Hiram R. Dater of the Apthorp apartments, New York; Mrs. Henry Miller of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Lenox Maitland of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson has lent her collection of porcelain to the Brooklyn Museum of Fine Arts. Mrs. Patterson will pass the summer in Quebec and will be with Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold during September.

BEVERLY.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 26.—With the approach of July the North Shore summer season begins to swing into full stride. The coming week promises to be an especially busy one along the North Shore. Among those to entertain will be Mrs. William H. Moore of New York city at Rockyknave, her summer home at Price's Crossing. On Thursday the Eastern Yacht Club at Marblehead will formally open its season with a band concert, dinner and dance at the clubhouse. The annual club cruise will start on Sunday and the yachts will rendezvous at Mattapoisett. One of the largest events will be the festival to be given at the Haven estate at Beverly Farms on July 1 for the benefit of the Charlestown Naval Y. M. C. A. Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Hamilton is to be the chairman of the booths committee. The event coming on the night before the Fourth will allow several novel entertainment features to be provided. A cabaret with jazz music will be one of the attractions. For the daylight programme a horse show featuring the jumping classes will offer the entertainment to colonists expected from all of the colonies.

The OceanSide Hotel at Magnolia has opened for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erdmann of New York are at their Coolidge Point place. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler of San Antonio, Tex., are at their cottage at Bass Rocks. Mrs. John C. Phillips of Washington is at her place, the Moraine Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their cottage at Smith's Point, at Manches Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their place at Pigeon Cove. Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club has returned from a cruise to Newport on board his schooner yacht the Constellation.

August and will return to Lenox early in September.

Mrs. Charles F. Griffin of New York, Mr. Charles W. MacCord of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Graham K. Mellen of New Haven, Conn., are at Heaton Hall in Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall R. Kernochan of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., will arrive next week at Holmesdale in Pittsfield for a month with her mother, Mrs. William Pollock.

At the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield for the season are Mrs. Hiram R. Dater of the Apthorp apartments, New York; Mrs. Henry Miller of New York, Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb of Washington, D. C.; the Rev. and Mrs. Franklin B. Dwight of Morristown, N. J., and Mrs. Robert Lenox Maitland of New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert W. Patterson has lent her collection of porcelain to the Brooklyn Museum of Fine Arts. Mrs. Patterson will pass the summer in Quebec and will be with Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold during September.

BEVERLY.
BEVERLY, Mass., June 26.—With the approach of July the North Shore summer season begins to swing into full stride. The coming week promises to be an especially busy one along the North Shore. Among those to entertain will be Mrs. William H. Moore of New York city at Rockyknave, her summer home at Price's Crossing. On Thursday the Eastern Yacht Club at Marblehead will formally open its season with a band concert, dinner and dance at the clubhouse. The annual club cruise will start on Sunday and the yachts will rendezvous at Mattapoisett. One of the largest events will be the festival to be given at the Haven estate at Beverly Farms on July 1 for the benefit of the Charlestown Naval Y. M. C. A. Mrs. George von L. Meyer of Hamilton is to be the chairman of the booths committee. The event coming on the night before the Fourth will allow several novel entertainment features to be provided. A cabaret with jazz music will be one of the attractions. For the daylight programme a horse show featuring the jumping classes will offer the entertainment to colonists expected from all of the colonies.

The OceanSide Hotel at Magnolia has opened for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Erdmann of New York are at their Coolidge Point place. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Chandler of San Antonio, Tex., are at their cottage at Bass Rocks. Mrs. John C. Phillips of Washington is at her place, the Moraine Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their cottage at Smith's Point, at Manches Farm, on the shore of Wenham Lake, North Beverly, L. I., are at their place at Pigeon Cove. Commodore Herbert M. Sears of the Eastern Yacht Club has returned from a cruise to Newport on board his schooner yacht the Constellation.

Mr. and